IN THIRTY DAYS

Bids Will Be Invited For The Construction of Dam No. 33, Near Maysville, To Cost $1,100,000.

(Tuesday's Enquirer.)

United States Engineer Colonel Henry Jervey, of Cincinnati District No. 1, Corps of Engineers, will have supervision of the expenditures of the greater part of the allotment made by the War Department at Washington from the rivers and harbors bill's appropriations for use on Ohio River lock and dam improvements. The allotment made by the War Department for the Ohio River locks and dams was $1,750,000, and of this amount $1,272,000 will be expended on the locks and dams in the Cincinnati district.

This sum was awarded to Colonel Jervey at the recent meetings of the Ohio River Board of Engineers at Wheeling, and yesterday the board's allotments came back approved by Chief Engineer Dan C. Kingman, of Washington.

Of the amount allowed Colonel Jervey $1,100,000 is to be used to begin the construction of proposed Lock and Dam No. 33, near Maysville, Ky.

Colonel Jervey announced yesterday that he would advertise for bids for the main contract for the construction of No. 33 within the next 30 days, and hoped to open the bids some time in December. The plans and specifications prepared for this improvement will be forwarded immediately to the War Department at Washington for the approval of the officials there.

Mr. Larry Langfels was a business visitor in Cincinnati yesterday.

Hall, in Forest avenue, where the funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

JUDGE RICE REFUSES

To Enter of Record of Result of Local Option Election—Contest Will Now Be Fought Out In The Courts.

MASON COUNTY COURT.

Before Hon. W. H. Rice, Judge of the Mason County Court.

L. M. Lane, W. W. Ball, A. P. Gooding and L. M. Collis } Motion

Now came L. M. Lane, W. W. Ball, A. P. Gooding and L. M. Collis, and in behalf of themselves and of all others who signed a petition for an election to be held in Mason county on the 28th of September, 1914, under the local option law, which election has heretofore been held on said date, and the returns thereof duly canvassed and certified and delivered to the Clerk of this Court on the 3rd of October, 1914, and move the Judge of this Court to have the same spread on the order book of the Mason County Court under and pursuant to Section 2556, Kentucky Statutes, and the acts mandatory thereof, including Chapter 13 of the session Acts of 1911.

E. L. WORTHINGTON
STANLEY REED
Attorneys for Parties to Motion.

This motion being filed and submitted, and the Court having considered same, and it appearing that there is a contest of the election of September 28, 1914, now pending, and that Section 2566 of the Kentucky Statute, provides: "When a notice of contest shall be executed on the County Judge, the certificate of the election shall not be elected," that subsequent to the filing of the contest in this matter, when the Court sought as to whether or not the certificate should be recorded, he was advised by Hon. E. L. Worthington, attorney in the present Motion, that the certificate should not be recorded pending the contest. The Court has therefore overruled the said Motion.

W. H. RICE,
Judge Mason County Court.

Mr. Robert Hoedrich, Jr., returned home yesterday from a several days' visit to Cincinnati.

Mr. Thomas Malone of East Fourth street, left yesterday for a short business trip to Cincinnati.

SPRAINED HIS ARM.

Mr. George M. Diener had the misfortune to sprain his right arm while attempting to crank his Ford automobile, Monday afternoon. The injury was quite painful, but he is now getting along nicely.

STEERS CLIFF.

Mr. Ernest Steers, aged 25, a popular young farmer of the county, and Miss Columbia O. Cliff, aged 21, one of Maysville's charming young ladies, were married at Maysville last evening by Rev. W. J. Loos.

KILLED BIG RATTLESNAKE.

Yesterday afternoon while cutting corn on the farm of Mr. Frank Allen near Fernent, one of the laborers heard a whirling noise and turning around saw a large rattlesnake ready to spring at him. He made a quick stroke at the snake with his corn knife and cut its head cleanly off. The snake was quite large and as rattlers are quite scarce around here it is thought that it probably escaped from the snake show at the Germantown Fair this summer.

THIS IS "EDISON DAY"

Thirty-Fifth Anniversary of The Perfection of The Great Inventor's Incandescent Electric Lamp.

"The Story of Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp," does not equal the truth about the electric lamp invented and perfected by Thomas A. Edison, 35 years ago today.

Today the entire world is illuminated by the Mazda electric light as evolved from the first little incandescent bulb built by Mr. Edison in 1879.

"And God said, Let There Be Light, and there was light."

In the west window of Hill's "Electric Shop," in East Third street, is shown a replica of Edison's first little 60-watt, 8-candle power, incandescent electric lamp. Alongside of it stands the Mazda lamp, Edison's last word in perfected electric illumination. This Mazda is also a 60-watt lamp, but is 36 candle power.

There is also on exhibition in this window a 2000 candle power lamp, the largest ever seen here.

Mr. Edison and his marvelous inventions make one believe that his wonderful mind is inspired by God to reveal God's power.

Thomas Alva Edison

When you press the electric button and the magic lights flash, remember the "Wizard of Menlo Park."

When you start your victrola, the music comes from the brain of the greatest of all inventors. Remember this today, "Edison Day."

SAMPLE COATS .. At .. Bargain Prices

$18.50 to $25 Garments for $8.50 and $12.50.

Mr. Hunt has just shipped us a wonderful bargain from New York and exactly thirty-six women can share the good luck that brought us these handsome Coats so much under price. Plain fabrics and fancy mixtures, short and medium lengths. Many of the Coats are lined throughout with the best quality of Skinner's satin. Not a coat in the lot would sell regularly for less than $18½ and nearly all are regular $25 qualities. We place the lot on sale at two prices, $8½ and $12½. If you need a coat be sure to investigate this offer. It is a bargain that rarely comes at the season's very beginning. With only three dozen Coats in the lot they won't last long. We suggest prompt action if interested.

The Sale Opens Thursday Morning at Nine O'clock.

Will Not Sheathe The Sword Till Belgium Is Free Again.

London, Oct. 20, 1914.

"We will never sheathe the sword until Belgium has got back her freedom; until every inch of her soil is clear; until a treaty is made not on a scrap of paper, but on a foundation behind which stand the millions of the British race."

This is the pledge made by a large crowd of Irish Nationalists in Central hall Monday night. T. P. O'Connor, who administered the pledge, scathingly denounced Germany.

A TARIFF NEVER THOUGHT OF WILL FORCE A PROSPERITY NEVER SEEN

"In the first place, the war will undo many of the mistakes of our Democratic party. It will, for a time at least, restore a protective tariff.

"It will operate to keep the products of some European nations out of our country and it will enlarge our home markets to our home producers.

"Within the next few months, or even weeks, the mills and factories all over the United States will be humming in an effort to provide sufficient products to supply the demands of our home markets.

"People who formerly bought foreign goods will now buy American goods. On the other hand, the greater part of our foreign markets will remain untouched. We can still export our products to England, France, Italy, Spain and many other European countries, to all of South America and to the Orient.

"There will be some little readjustment of our exports, but our exports will continue, and increase, for the United States must of necessity supply a large part of the foreign demand which was formerly supplied by the nations now engaged in this destructive war.

"Thus both our products for foreign markets and our products for home consumption will be greatly augmented."—Extract from a telegram sent by W. R. Hearst to his various newspapers.

TO THOMAS ALVA EDISON

On October 21, 1879—Thirty-five years ago—you made the first carbon filament incandescent lamp—a thread of charred cotton that glowed forty hours in a vacuum bulb. From that initial success, in itself attained only after many months of patient labor and self-denial, has been evolved the most perfect illuminant that the world has ever known—the MAZDA Lamp.

In commemoration of that historic twenty-first day of October, 1879, in recognition of the vast benefits that your great invention has conferred on mankind, and in admiration of the genius that created not only the incandescent lamp, but the present lighting industry, this appreciation is published by the Edison Lamp Works of the General Electric Company.

If Germany conquers the Allies, what next? Why we'll all "Hoeh der Kaiser," tam quick.

Eating Kentucky horses at Louisville in the State of Kentucky is enough to make a horse laugh.

The irreconcilable conflict between the producer and consumer will never be terminated, but it is reasonably certain that the producer will win out in the contest. If he does not he will have to go out of business, and then what will the consumer do for things to consume.—San Francisco Chronicle

LIKED THE TREATMENT.

As he stepped into the office two weeks ago, he observed first thing that her eyes were suffused with tears. Now he habitually greets her each morning with ban buoyant merriment.

"Why does precious weep?" he queried solicitously.

"How can I tell you?"

"You'd better do it, maybe I can dry your tears."

"I'll tell you a story that will explain."

He scented romance.

"I'm eager to hear it," he said.

"Another girl's eyes were filled with tears as mine are. When the young man discovered the tears he said—first let me say this is no suggestion to you—but he said: 'Let me kiss your tears away.'"

"Well, she was willing, but at the end of an hour her eyes still glistened. 'What, still weeping,' he chided.

"It's my fever," she explained, 'but go on with the treatment.'—Louisville Times.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Theodor's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used.

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man." Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Theodor's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c. N. C. 122

TOO FREE WITH KNIFE.

(Boston Cor. New York World.)
Dr. John M. T. Pinney, of the Johns Hopkins Medical School, of Baltimore, speaking at the Massachusetts General Hospital at the exercises of the sixty-eighth anniversary of the discovery of ether, said:

"There is far too great a tendency to operate nowadays, and the average doctor resorts to this shorter route when perhaps a more careful diagnosis would show some other course to be preferable. Many operators—and I use the word advisedly—rush into operations with no clear idea whatever of the true nature of the disease which they are endeavoring to combat, and for this reason many operations are needlessly performed."

LONG DRY RUN FOR TRAVELERS SOUTHWARD.

Lexington, Ky.—A railroad official here, who has been canvassing the situation carefully, says that when local option becomes effective in Paris and Winchester, Ky., that it will be impossible for a passenger on the L. & N. South, to buy a drink of liquor legally between Covington, Ky., and Jackson ville, Fla., and that when State-wide prohibition goes into effect in Virginia as a result of the recent election, that it will not be possible to purchase a drink of liquor at any point on the Chesapeake & Ohio, except at Ashland, Ky., and Catlettsburg, Ky., between Newport, Ky., and the Atlantic coast.

This, he says, is the best evidence that the South is going dry.

SAYS COFFEE DRINKERS HAVE REAL DRUG HABIT

Physician Declares Food Value Is Nil and People Use It Only For Stimulation.

"That many people are slaves to tea and coffee appears from a statement of Dr. C. J. Hauglass, of Dorchester, Mass. "They do not distinguish the difference between drugs and food in their effect on the system.

"There is no substitute for an en-slaving drug. When the effect of one dose has worn off, another dose of the same drug must be taken or discomfort follows, but if nutrition is wanted, a hundred different foods will supply the demand with equally satisfactory results.

"Tea and coffee are never taken because of any small nutritive element they may contain. Some drink them in small quantities merely because the taste is agreeable, or to wash down solid food.

"On the other hand, if a sufficient quantity is habitually taken, so that when they are discontinued, uncomfortable symptoms follow, then it is evident that a drug habit has been formed.

"If, for example, a person habitually drinks so much coffee for breakfast that on omitting it he 'misses something' during the forenoon, he may be set down as an excessive coffee drinker. He is relying on the stimulation of the drug, caffeine, and the daily use of any drug for such purpose is injurious.

NOTE.—The food-drink INSTANT POSTUM, while much resembling the higher grades of Java coffee in flavor and appearance is absolutely free from the coffee drugs 'caffeine' and 'tannin' or any other harmful ingredient. Recent decrease in coffee sales is very generally attributed to the growing American custom of using Postum as a table beverage instead of coffee.

LONDON TIMES VOICES SENTIMENT OF MIGHTY BRITISH EMPIRE

London.—The Times military correspondent, replying to the Frankfurter Zeitung's statement that Great Britain was unable to raise more than 600,000 troops, says:

"We have at the present moment exactly double that number, namely 1,200,000 men and the number grows almost faster than we can cope with. This is only the beginning."

"It is our way, as well as that of America, to begin to raise an army after war breaks out and go on raising them until our ultimate ends are achieved. With 1,200,000 men at home the army in the field and the hundreds of thousands forming in India, Canada, Australia and elsewhere are merely the nucleus upon which other armies will eventually be built."

"It is only a question of time. It stands to reason that an empire of 400,000,000 can never lack men. This war for us has hardly begun. We have sent merely an advance guard into France. In the spring the remainder of the advance guard will follow, and somewhere toward the end of 1915 the main body will begin to come within view."

"We are sorry for the allies that we are even slower than Russia in making our weight felt, but a year or so hence when the allies need a rest, we shall be in a position to make good war."

"Nothing can resist the steadily ascending figures of our army. Their cost is of little account since Germany will ultimately have to pay—in territory as well as money."

"I can imagine things at their worst. Imagine the last Cossack on the Urals and the last French doorkeeper evicted from Bordeaux. Then we would begin a maritime war against Germany and still be no worse off than when we began war against Napoleon."

THE STORY OF THE ELECTRIC LAMP

How Thomas A. Edison Made Electric Lighting Possible Thirty-Five Years Ago

Thirty-five years ago on the twenty-first of October, Thomas A. Edison produced the first successful incandescent lamp. To fully appreciate the importance of this wonderful invention one must go back to those days when household electric lighting was deemed impossible by the world's greatest scientists, when the only illuminants were candles, oil lamps and now and then a gas plant in the larger cities. Street lighting was not seriously attempted, stores and shops were not illuminated after closing hours and only a few small oil lamps and flickering candles served to illuminate the household after dark.

Those were strenuous days for Mr. Edison. Beside the enormous amount of work entailed by the operations of his manufacturing shops, he was elaborating the engineering plans for the first central station in New York City, covering carefully every detail; he was turning out several new inventions every day; and helping the Board of Fire Underwriters formulate rules to the new art of incandescent lighting. He was also working on the numerous details relating to isolated electric lighting plants, for which there was a growing demand; he was directing the engineering and construction work of his electric railway out at Menlo Park. He was working about twenty hours a day at this time. He seemed to be utterly oblivious of the every day things of life. When he seemed to need new clothes, his secretary would order them and have them delivered to Mrs. Edison. When they arrived she would wait until he had gone to bed and then change all his things over from the old suit into the pockets of the new ones and leave that in place of the old suit. He would put it on next morning and just as likely as not go down to the machine works or elsewhere and get the new clothes covered with oil or chemicals.

Previous to 1881, the general public did not know what an incandescent lamp was. An engine and dynamo had been placed in the basement of Edison's office in Fifth Avenue, and the house was wired and fitted up with lamps and fixtures for the purpose of educating the public.

TARIFF BLIGHT

Ashland Steel Mill Forced to Shut Down Its Big Mills and Lay Off 500 Men, While Ashland Iron and Mining Co. Cuts Wages as Result of Underwood Legislation Respecting Output

It was a matter of years before the general public acquired even a rudimentary knowledge of the art of incandescent lighting. This ignorance gave rise to a long list of most ludicrous incidents. The lamp works shipped some lamps to a customer, forwarding therewith the usual memorandum of shipment, which in this case read: "100 lamps, 110 volts." The customer returned the memorandum with this note written at the foot: "Lamps received but cannot find the volts in the package."

Developments in the new art of incandescent lighting came thick and fast from Mr. Edison in the early eighties. Improvement followed improvement with dazzling rapidity. The manufacturing shops were buzzing with industry. Real money, however, was a scarce commodity. Mr. Edison had been obliged to finance the organization of the shops himself, and in doing so had to a large extent mortgaged his future. There was some fearful and wonderful financing done when the pay rolls of the four shops were made up at the week ends.

Late one summer afternoon in 1881 Mr. Edison was sitting in Major Eaton's office talking with him. The door opened and in came Mr. E. R. Upton, the manager of the lamp factory, which was then a small wooden building at Menlo Park. Mr. Upton was the one who, about a year previous to this time, had gone from Menlo Park to New York having on his arm a market basket containing all the incandescent lamps in the world.

"Hello! Upton," said Mr. Edison. "How are you making out?" "Fine," replied Mr. Upton exultantly. "We finished a thousand lamps today."

Mr. Edison said nothing but seized a pad of paper and figured for a few minutes. Then looking up, he said, "In fifteen years you'll be making forty thousand a day."

As a matter of fact, the lamp factory was actually turning out about 15,000 lamps a day in 1896, and this number per hour is not unusual today.

REPUBLICAN TICKET WILL POLL A BIG VOTE IN EASTERN KENTUCKY

(Cor. Lexington Leader.)

Ashland, Ky.—If there was any doubt at all about a full Republican vote being cast in Ashland next month, such doubt was dispelled this evening, when the Ashland Steel Company shut down for an indefinite period and five hundred men were laid off.

The weekly payroll of the Ashland Steel Company has been $6,500, about all of which has been spent at home, hence the shutting down of the big mills will be felt in all lines of trade, aside from the hardships which will fall upon the men who are thrown out of work.

In addition to this, the Ashland Iron and Mining Company, employing some three hundred and fifty men, posted notices this week of reductions in wages and this concern may also have to shut down if there is no early improvement in business conditions.

Ashland being one of the principal manufacturing centers in Kentucky, is simply feeling the effects of the Underwood tariff legislation passed by the present Democratic Congress, which has depressed the steel business throughout the United States.

The United States Steel Company, it was stated, the first of January and about four millions of tons of reduction in pending orders, as compared with the first of January of the previous year, and this condition, in a lesser degree, has prevailed in other steel districts.

There are some 2,000 workmen employed in the different manufacturing establishments in Ashland and it is safe to predict that very few Democratic votes will be cast by any of these men.

Willson's Speech.

When Governor Willson spoke here Tuesday night he dwelt at considerable length upon the effects of the Democratic tariff tinkering and predicted that times in the mill sections would get worse rather than better before the coming of the spring. He did not know as he was speaking that the Ashland Steel Company would close down by the end of the week. His words therefore were strangely prophetic.

Governor Willson and Glenn Ireland, the latter the Republican nominee for Congress, had a fine reception here and in Catlettsburg Tuesday. The party in Boyd county is well organized and we poll its full strength in November. Two years ago the Bull Runners got some 1,200 votes in the two cities of Ashland and Catlettsburg, but at the recent registration they showed up with a meagre twenty-five votes. This indicates that the Progressives up this way have concluded that the only way to defeat Democrats is to vote for Republicans.

Ireland is extremely popular all through the Ninth District and his supporters believe that he will be elected, and is especially strong with the workmen.

Ashland a Hunting City.

Ashland is one of the best towns in Eastern Kentucky and has one of the most progressive and wide-awake city councils in the country. The average reader will be surprised to know that every street in Ashland is paved, and most of them have been paved for twelve years. The work, too, was so well done that there is today very little evidence of wear and tear.

Putting down expensive streets is a good deal like pulling a sore tooth—hurts mightily while it is being done, but feels so good after it is over. The Ashland folks concluded some years ago to do this job and do it right, and now everybody is happy. The abutting property, vacant lots and all, were assessed for the cost of the improvements and given ten years in which to pay the indebtedness.

Ashland also has a wonderfully beautiful park of forty-seven acres, right in the heart of the town, which was bought some years ago for $33,000 and which is now worth all of half a million dollars if converted into building sites—something which will never be done. The park is full of fine old forest trees and needs no artificial ornamentation to add to its beauty.

Ashland's tax rate is $1.25.

THE BIG COTTON BANQUET.

(Georgetown (Texas) Commercial.) We are in receipt of a cartoon from Colonel Gene Spinkle, cartoonist, of Chicago, after he has partaken of the cotton banquet prepared for all those who did not buy a bale at 10 cents. The cartoon is to be eaten by each guest without liquid refreshment. In the cartoon Colonel Spinkle resembles a baby elephant and it is labeled, "Me, after the Rountree cotton banquet, Gowan, Lee, I jess done can't eat no more Texas cotton." In the distance stands Luke Meluke, Joe Taylor, Rhoddy M-Phee, Andrew McBeth, Henry E. Ellis, Will Edwards, Harve Nelson and others still eating cotton.

LIQUOR PROBLEM SOLVED BY MILK

Speaker Told Delegates to National Safety Congress.

Chicago.—Sixty per cent of the industrial accidents in the United States are charged to liquor, R. L. Palmer, chief inspector of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry, told delegates attending the National Congress for Industrial Safety today. "It will not be long," the speaker said, "before the saloon will be as much separated from the industrial plant as it is now from the church. As a matter of fact, we will have to furnish workmen better entertainment than do saloons. We also will have to pay in cash to prevent men from going to saloons to convert their checks into cash."

R. K. Pritchett, representing a manufacturing concern of Grand Rapids, Mich., asserted that after employees had been forbidden to use alcoholic beverages, arrangements were made for milk wagons to call at the factories at a certain hour every morning. "We then permitted the men to stop work and go out and buy fresh bottles of milk," Mr. Pritchett said. "We found this arrangement practically solved the drinking problem."

R. W. Campbell of Chicago was elected president of the National congress at a meeting of the directors. L. R. Palmer of Harrisburg, Pa., was chosen first vice president.

Mrs. Elmer Downing of the county, was shopping in Cincinnati Saturday.

WOMEN EXALTED.

In his sermon Sunday morning Rev. A. E. Stahl emphasized the fact that Christianity is distinguished for the honor it assigns and the liberty it allows to women. Schiff says "Christianity raises women from the slavish position which she held both in Judaism and in Heathendom, to her true manly dignity and importance; makes her an heir of the same salvation with man and opens to her a field for the noblest and loveliest virtue."

The manner in which Christ exalted woman to a station with man shattered all the traditions of the elders of his time. Though Judaism did not in every way consider her the equal of man, yet the Scriptural teaching of her position was better than the authorized practices of the Hebrew leaders.

In the heathen world in Christ's time, she was little more than chattel. She could be divorced for any cause. In Babylon the penal code contains the following: "If a husband say unto his wife, Thou art not my wife, he shall say half a mina and he free. But if a woman repudiate her husband she shall be drowned in the river." In Rome Seneca tells us ladies reckoned their ages not by the consuls but the number of their husbands. In the knowledge of the way in which woman was treated in that age, a restudy of Christ's manner of exalting her, enlarges our conception of her position and makes every woman of this Christ era a debtor to Christianity. Those finer womanly qualities of sympathy, gentleness, tenderness, and patience were possessed by him without checking his most manly qualities. His mind like a woman's was intuitive, his moral judgments were swift and sure.

HUMAN SYSTEM INJURED BY ONE CUP OF COFFEE

Its Constant Use Tends to Increase Fatigue Products Says Kansas City Physician.

The constant use of coffee and tea tends to increase fatigue products in the human system, says Dr. G. W. Robinson, of the University Medical College, Kansas City, Mo.

"Caffeine is used in coffee and tea as a beverage for its stimulating effects. Even in small doses, one cup of coffee or tea per day, the general results of the action of caffeine upon the nervous system are to increase the irritability of the brain."

"In order to respond to the stimulation of regular doses of caffeine, nerve and muscle tissue must draw upon their reserve energy, and they must do their work in the presence of an excessive quantity of toxic fatigue products, and both of these conditions tend to exhaustion and perversion of function."

Caffeine is not a food to nerve or muscle tissue. It does not increase the elimination of fatigue products, but does increase their production."

NOTE.—Too much cannot be said in favor of the value of an invigorating morning drink, especially during colder weather—but the drink must not be harmful. The food-drink, INSTANT POSTUM, while resembling the better grades of Java in flavor and appearance is pure, wholesome and wholly free from the coffee, drugs, caffeine and 'tannin' and is rapidly taking the place of coffee as a table beverage for reasons of health.

HISTORIC DRUM

That Called Jackson's Men to Arms to Be Used in "Battle of New Orleans," Reproduction.

New Orleans, October 15th.—The very battle drum, whose rattling staccato notes, called Andrew Jackson's sleeping handful of Tennesseans, Kentuckians and Creoles to the low-lying mud earthworks just before daybreak, January 8th, 1815, to repel the attack of the invading British hosts under Gen. Packenham, is to be used in the realistic reproduction of that great American triumph of arms that is to be given exactly one hundred years after on the very battlefield by the Louisiana Historical Society.

The drum used by "Old Hickory's" little five boy of color has long been one of the treasured relics of the Louisiana State Museum and it, together with countless other interesting mementos, will be used in the "Battle of New Orleans." Not only will authentic relics be shown but the descendants of those who defended the city will impersonate their ancestors and the visitor to New Orleans during January 8, 9 and 10, when the pageant is to be held, will see the spectacle of a whole city reproducing history of a hundred years ago.

DO IT NOW

Maysville People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once!

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. S. Neal, 497 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "One of my family had a great deal of trouble from his back and kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills made him better and he always praises them."

Mrs. Neal is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Neal recommends—the remedy backed by some testimony. 50c all stores. Holding that the South Covington and Cincinnati Street Railway company held a "perpetual" franchise over and upon the street of Covington," Judge A. M. J. Although the restraining order is not made permanent Judge Cochran goes into every angle of the case and it is very probable that no further action will be taken by either side.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

271 JAPS SANK WITH SHIP.
Tokio, Oct. 19.—It is officially announced that the Japanese cruiser Takachiho was sunk by a mine in Kiao Chow bay on the night of October 17. One officer and nine members of the crew are known to have been saved. The Takachiho was on patrol duty outside Tsing-Tau when she fouled the mine. Japanese destroyers heard the explosion and saw the flames that resulted. They hurried to the assistance of the cruiser which, however, disappeared quickly, and in the darkness it was possible to rescue only 12 men. Twenty-eight officers, 54 non-commissioned officers and 189 seamen, a total of 271, perished.

It is also announced that a typhoon struck Kiao-Chow, destroying the landing pier. Twenty Japanese sailors were drowned.

BELFORT IS BOMBARDED.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—The strong French fortress of Belfort, nearest the Alsatian frontier, is being bombarded with heavy siege mortars used to reduce Liege, Namur and Antwerp. Sorties by the Belfort garrison and French line troops have been repulsed with heavy losses, and a sharp engagement is in progress today.

CAPTURED A MINE LAYER.

Harwich, Oct. 19.—The cruiser Undaunted is bringing into port a German mine layer, captured in the North sea.

WARNING FROM SPAIN.

Madrid, Oct. 19.—The Spanish Premier has declared that Spain, while remaining neutral, will fight if she is made a victim of aggression. The warning is directed at Germany.

London, Oct. 19.—From the view of the allied armies, so far as could be learned from dispatches reaching London today, the situation in West Flanders and in France as far south as Lille seems perhaps more hopeful than at any time since the German advance on Paris was checked.

All tidings seem to indicate that the German advance from Ostend on the French coast town has been blocked, temporarily at least, while further south in a region that was a week ago the extreme German right, the invaders have been again compelled to give ground before the allies' wedge force which has been concentrating on Lille.

The French are said to have recaptured Arras, an important railway junction on the Belgian frontier northwest of Lille, and to have repulsed an attempt of the Germans to cross the River Yser, which flows through that little corner of West Flanders which is all of Belgium that remains in Belgian hands.

It seems that the German army operating along the coast of Flanders found itself in peril of being cut off from the main body.

What opposition they met along the sea is only guess work, for it has never been disclosed in great Britain what forces the allies have or at what point they touch the coast.

Ostend Practically Clear.

All reports seem to agree that the city of Ostend is practically clear of Germans, who apparently are reforming to the south with reinforcements and the siege guns used to batter the Belgian forts and that they now propose to hammer on toward Dunkirk and Calais. One report says that they are beyond Burnes, less than five miles from Dunkirk.

The river trade is again assuming its natural shape and everything will soon be running according to schedule.

The river at this point will continue to rise for the next 24 hours, owing to a light precipitation at up-river points.

The steamer Courier was tied up in the fog at the Cincinnati wharf last night and this morning early and will therefore not arrive here until late this afternoon or tonight.

J. W. MANGES, CENTRAL HOTEL.

Mr. Sam Riggs of Chicago, is spending a few days in the city.

MRS. MURRAY HUBBARD

Who Speaks Friday, October 23, 7:30 P. M., at Neptune Hall.

On "The Call to Citizenship" has done valuable social service in her home city, Covington, Kentucky. She last winter conceived the idea of providing amusement for the many young people in her city who have not homes in which they can entertain their young friends, and put through a series of municipal dances that were cordially approved by the social workers of Covington. It is the testimony of those who inspected these entertainments that Mrs. Hubbard succeeded in giving the young people a wholesome good time without many of the dangers that often attend such functions.

Mrs. Hubbard is a woman who does things. Hear her on this stirring theme.

All women of the Third Ward and the adult members of their families are the guests of honor and will occupy reserved seats.

October 21st is the 35th anniversary of Edison's first incandescent lamp

When the great inventor saw the first flash of light from that first incandescent lamp 35 years ago, he dreamed of the day when every home would be lighted by electricity. The realization of that dream is now made possible by the development of the

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

These economical lamps give from 3 to 6 times as much light as old-style carbon lamps, without using any more electricity.

If you want to get the full benefit of this saving you should put EDISON MAZDA Lamps in every room of your house.

There is an EDISON MAZDA for every lighting purpose—from the tiny battery lamp and small automobile lamps to the giant 1000 watt size, nearly 2000 candle-power, for stores, theatres, factories, etc.

Let us show you how they save, and advise you which to use for YOUR purpose.
